

Grimshaw to Run for Congress.

Dr. Robert Grimshaw, 717 West 177th Street, announced last night that he would run independently for election as Representative in Congress from the Twenty-first District as the candidate of the Citizens' Party, which will file an independent certificate of nomination. The district is now represented by Congressman Jerome F. Donovan, Democrat, who is a candidate for re-election.

The New York Times

Copyright © The New York Times
Originally published September 12, 1920